

Set in the gardens of the Goodwood Hotel a stone's throw away from the famous Festival of Speed startline, this social spot offers friends, families and colleagues a convenient launch pad to the main event. With its eclectic mix of street food options, you'll enjoy feeding your taste buds, as well as your need for speed. When you're ready for a dose of adrenaline, the designated path will take you straight to the start line, where you'll share the buzz of excitement and anticipation with drivers and their mechanics, as they gear up for their charge up the Hill Climb. You'll also enjoy easy access to the wider event, with your grandstand pass ensuring that you have prime views of all the on-track action. Of course, when you're in need of some down time, you can return to the Startline Club at your leisure and enjoy access to the hotel's facilities, even after the event gates have closed.
