

Take a step back in time to 1940s London and enjoy the sophistication and camaraderie of our Officers' Club. Inside the mahogany walls, a dutiful team serves breakfast, lunch and afternoon tea, while you enjoy the company of your guests. From your private balcony overlooking the Madgwick Straight, you'll experience the hairs standing up on the back of your neck, as the world's most spectacular vintage racing cars fly past and head into the first corner of the circuit. Motorsport fanatics will appreciate the location, right next door to the Assembly Area, where they can enjoy the hustle and bustle of cars and their drivers gathering before rumbling their way to the start line. When adventure calls, the vintage shops and exhibitions are just a short walk away, under the VIP tunnel.
