

Enjoy a weekend brunch and afternoon cakes, with a twist, inside an expertly themed World War II barracks, set on the motor circuit infield. Designed with socialising in mind, with its long tables and private garden, this casual space is a relaxed retreat, just a short walk away from the main Revival festivities. You'll have exclusive access to The Barracks, its bar and secure lockers all day, so you can explore the event with this comfort in mind. Motorsport enthusiasts adore The Barracks for its prime positioning next to the Lavant Straight, one of the fastest parts of Goodwood's famous motor circuit.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

- Admission badge
- Early event access
- Near the track action through the tunnel, with private garden area offering easy access to viewing of the Lavant Straight and Woodcote Corner
- Brunch buffet
- Afternoon cakes and scones
- Unlimited tea, coffee and juice
- Informal seating layout and your base for the day
- Lockers
- Event programme, race card and radio earpiece
- Live streams from the track shown in the main enclosure

